

Reflection

What are some areas of opportunity for improvement that I can make?

Are there any changes I can do that will improve my patient care, knowledge, or experience?

What was the most impactful thing I have learned today (or this week) that I will carry forward as a pharmacist?

How has my experience been so far and why?